BAKER GIVEN A LIFE SENTENCE

Eight Of Jurors Who Tried Slayer Of Renzo King Voted For The Chair—Doings In Court

John Baker, for striking Lorenzo D. King on the head with a corn knife, from the effects of which he died a few days later, was given a verdict of life in the penitentiary at noon Wednesday. The case was called Tuesday morning and the jury was completed just as our Tuesday's issue went to press, the names of the jurors appearing in that paper. The evidence was all in by adjournment Tuesday afternoon and that evening Attorney C. C. Bagby, for the defense, and Commonwealth's Attorney A. A. Huddleston, of the Casey district, who has been employed in the case, spoke for the prosecution. Quite a crowd gathered to hear the speeches, and splendid attention was given them. The efforts of the gentlemen were about as unlike as two speeches could be. That of Mr. Bagby, was an application of the law to the case, couched in beautiful English. He is an orate speaker and a forceful one. That of Mr. Huddleston was a going over and over of the epithet applied to King by Baker; the coldness of the murder and the necessity of dealing summarily with the slayer.

Mr. Huddleston is a mountain lawyer and a good one. In fact his success as prosecuting attorney has been phenomenal, but those who heard and saw him here were somewhat amused at his characteristic poses. A dozen or more times he dropped to his knees during the hour allotted to him and pointing to the jurors, told them to do their duty as men; that the case before them needed men, not chicken-hearted individuals, etc. Notwithstanding the fact that he had never been at Stanford more than by name and called it without the least hesitation. Messrs. J. S. Owsley, for the defense and Commonwealth's Attorney E. V. Puryear both made creditable speeches, the former's being very highly complimented.

The verdict was not a surprise to anybody and the prisoner himself seemed satisfied. He will make no appeal, but take his medicine. Baker is not a strong man, physically or mentally, and it is doubtful if he lasts long in confinement. He has grown very frail since his incarceration here.

The latter part of July of last year Baker, who had been on friendly terms with Lorenzo D. King, a brother of Baker and a neighbor named Kelley were together in the suburbs of Moreland, the home of each of them. There was a bottle of whisky in the crowd and each took a drink or so. King, who was fond of practical jokes, amused himself by "gossiping" John Baker. The latter grew tired of it and left the crowd. Going to his home, some 200 yards away, he secured a corn knife and returning, struck King on the side of his head with it, cutting a gash some six inches long and an inch or more deep. He died several days later. Baker never gave any good reason for his act, save that King had hurt him and had gone too far with him. He was immediately arrested and since has been in the jail here.

Probably the most damaging testimony was that of his brother, William Baker. That of the defendant was not helpful to his case. In fact Baker seemed careless about his fate.

It is reported that eight of the twelve jurors were for inflicting the death penalty.

On Wednesday afternoon L. D. Kennedy, a Preachersville shoe Co. was sued by the King Bros. Shoe Co. for a bill of $42. Verdict for that amount was given. A counter claim of $250 was put in by Kennedy, charging that his trade had been damaged to that extent by the worthlessness of the shoes. A verdict was given Kennedy for $20.

The trial of John Engleman, colored—"Big Foot"—for crushing the skull of Mitchell Dotson, will come up Tuesday. Dotson's mind has been in bad condition since he was assaulted in Macksville some three months ago. Engleman has admitted that he struck Dotson, but later denied it.

James Norris, a colored boy, this morning confessed to have stolen a suit of clothes from L. L. Sanders, of Crab Orchard, and was given from two to five years in the reform school at Greendale. Lafa Edgington, also colored, was given 12 months at the same place for circulating obscene pictures.

Sloan's Liniment Eases Pain

Sloan's Liniment is first thought of mothers for bumps, bruises and sprains that are continually happening to children. It quickly penetrates and soothes without rubbing. Cleaner and more effective than mussy plasters or ointments. For rheumatic aches, neuralgia pain and that grippy soreness after colds, Sloan's Liniment gives prompt relief. Have a bottle handy for bruises, strains, sprains and all external pain. For the thousands whose work calls them outdoors, the pains and aches following exposure are relieved by Sloan's Liniment. At all Druggists, 25c.

JARRET MOCK DEAD

Lincoln county friends heard with regret of the death in Chicago of Jarret Mock. For years Mr. Mock lived in Danville and was well known in Lincoln county. He had a number of very close friends, here.

Harry N. Jones bought of John M. Cress several butter steers at 7-1-4c.

High School Notes

The annual Interscholastic Tournament for high schools of the state, will be held during the week of May 5th, at the University of Kentucky. Last year about 15 high schools took part and a much larger enrollment is anticipated for this year. Stanford took a very prominent part in track events last year, ranking well up in the list of the contestants and having the individual champion of the meet. Sam Embry, who received a handsome gold plaque for the above honor, also won three other gold medals. This year the local high school has bright prospects for the track meet and also may be represented in the musical and declamatory contests. The school is in receipt of an invitation to compete in the Interscholastic track meet to be held at Centre College, in Danville, on April 27th. S. H. S. made a good showing last season and should get its share of the honors this year. A very handsome loving cup is the trophy, which the winners of the relay race will be allowed to carry off and this alone should arouse much interest.

The Senior Class will entertain the high school tonight in the school auditorium. It has been planned for each class to take its turn at entertaining with a social, which will afford some pleasing entertainments for the students. The Board has very willingly contributed toward this form of enjoyment and the members of the school feel very grateful for their generosity.

Baseball officers have been chosen and as soon as possible the players will don their suits and practice for the coming season.

An account of the enrollment and attendance of the High School has been drawn up. More accurate accounts are being kept each year now and it is able to be known the average number of hours spent by the pupils in preparing their work and many other things which were before impossible to know. The total enrollment for the high school for September was 95, the average attendance, 89.5 and the percentage of attendance based on the enrollment was 95:87.5 and 92, respectively; for November 92:84.9 and 92; for December 89:82.2 and 92; for January 87:81.6 and 93.

JONES—MASON

Luther Mason, of Middletown, O., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mason of Green River, and Miss Grace Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Jones, of near McKinney, were made one in the presence of a few friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hubbard. After the reading of the poem "Do you know that you are asking for the costliest thing ever made by the hand above," by Mrs. Hubbard, the ceremony was quietly said by the said gentleman. The bride and groom stood before an altar of beautiful flowers and the bride carried an exquisite bunch of white calla lilies. Their many friends extend to them their heartiest congratulations.

Neglected Colds Grow Worse

A cough that racks and irritates the throat may lead to a serious chronic cough, if neglected. The healing pine balsams in Dr. Bell's Pine Honey—Nature's own remedy—will soothe and relieve the irritation, breathing will be easier, and the anti-septic properties will kill the germ which retarded healing. Have it handy for croup, sore throat and chronic bronchial affections. Get a bottle today. Pleasant to take. At all Druggists, 25c.

Constipation Causes Bad Skin

A dull and pimply skin is due to a sluggish bowel movement. Correct this condition and clear your complexion with Dr. King's New Life Pills. This mild laxative taken at bed time will assure you a full, free, non-gripping movement in the morning. Drive out the dull, listless feeling resulting from overloaded intestines and sluggish liver. Get a bottle today. At all Druggists, 25c.

O. L. Damron, of the West End of the county, sold to J. H. Yowell a sow and pigs for $27.50.

Prominent Man Gone

"Uncle John" Anderson Passes Away at Home Near Preachersville.

After a long and well-spent life, Mr. John Anderson, one of the East End's best known citizens, breathed his last at 5 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. F. Cummins near Preachersville, aged 78. His wife, who was Miss Jennie Newland, had preceded him to the grave quite a number of years, but the daughter mentioned and son, James D. Anderson, now residing in Louisville, are left to mourn the loss of an indulgent and devoted father. Mr. Anderson had been a devout member of the Stanford Christian church, since he was 19 years old and was a regular attendant at its services until the weight of years began to tell upon him. He was a God-loving, God-fearing man, a splendid neighbor and as true a friend as ever mortal had. He told with pardonable pride a fact that few men can—that he never either took a drink of whisky nor swore an oath. All honor to the memory of such a man. The funeral was preached at the Baptist church at Preachersville by Rev. J. M. Robinson, of the Methodist church at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, after which the remains were laid to rest in the old Newland burying ground on the farm of D. M. Anderson. Peace to the ashes of the clever man and excellent citizen.

MRS. WALKER ENTERTAINED

Mrs. J. William Baughman entertained the Sewing Club on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. D. M. Walker, before she left for her new home at Shelbyville. Delicious grape juice frappe and nabiscoes were served by Mrs. A. B. Florence upon the arrival of the guests. After some time spent in pleasant conversation, a "Shirt Waist Romance" was passed around for solution. The picture of a modern shirt waist sketched upon a card, and the blank spaces to be filled in by the name of some part of a shirt waist. It proved very interesting and amusing. The answers were read upon completion, and Mesdames Will Severance, P. M. McRoberts and J. B. Paxton had answered more nearly correctly. The refreshments were peppermint ice cream, fancy cakes, candies and mints. Those invited were: Mesdames M. S. Baughman, A. B. Florence, H. C. Baughman, J. S. Baughman, J. H. Baughman, of Boyle; W. G. Withers, W. S. Embry, William Severance, Alice Pickett, W. M. Bright, R. M. Blackberry, D. M. Walker, T. M. McRoberts, J. B. Paxton and T. A. Rice.

McKINNEY SCHOOL HONOR ROLL

Grade 4—James Owens, Mack Singleton, James Walker.

Grade 6—Elliott Briley, Woodie Goode, Vascen Elliott, Iva Duncan.

Grade 8—Eva Gover, Alta Gover, Estelle True, Frank Grider, George Walker.

WAS KNOWN HERE

Rev. Robert A. Haden, the Presbyterian missionary to China, who lost his life when the French liner "Athos" was destroyed by a submarine in the Mediterranean on February 17th, was well known in this community, having made a protracted visit here to Rev. Ben Holm, a former pastor, just prior to his departure to China for the first time, and he has since visited here. He was an excellent gentleman and well liked by all who knew him.

Mr. Haden was on his way to Switzerland where his family are on a furlough.

SISTER'S STORE ROBBED

Mrs. E. C. Walton, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Mims, at Catlettsburg, writes that her store was robbed a few nights ago. Dozens of razors and knives were stolen and an effort was made to break open the safe. The door was badly battered but the effort was unsuccessful.

LOST VALUABLE MULE

A valuable mule belonging to the Indian Refinery Co., died here the other night. The mule was driven to wagon with oil and gasoline and with its mate was put up for the night in Carter & Carter's stable. Its death occurred during the night.

$6.40 CORN

The price of corn broke all previous records in Clark county when the sale of J. W. Scott a lot sold at $6.40 a barrel. The record previous to this sale was also made in Clark, when a big lot sold at $6.25.

President Barney Dreyfuss, of the Pittsburgh Pirates said that he had about given up hopes of getting Hans Wagner's name to a contract for 1917 and has reluctantly come to the conclusion that the Dutchman isn't going to play ball again.

Anderson Lewis, who was known in his community as the "king of bootleggers," died at his home near Burgin from an injury received several days ago while breaking hemp.

He had paid thousands of dollars in fines to the county for bootlegging, always giving checks, the last one several months ago for $600.

The contract for building a new wing to the Old Masons' Home at Shelbyville has been let to Gruber & Doss of that city. The work will start as soon as the weather permits.

The addition will contain seventeen rooms and will increase the capacity of the home from sixty to ninety. The improvements contemplated will cost between $12,000 and $14,000.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED.

Mrs. E. C. Walton was hostess to the Current Events Club on Feb. 22, but on account of the illness of her sister, she was called to Catlettsburg a few days before the meeting and Mrs. Shelton M. Sautley generously offered her home as a substitute.

The club held the literary part of the program at Mrs. Sautley's, where a most enjoyable and interesting lesson was recited. American history was the study for this month and each member present had a well prepared lesson. After completing the program, the members repaired to the "Princess," where Mrs. Walter had prepared a delicious luncheon for Mrs. Walton. The table was bright and festive with red carnations and ferns. The place cards were in the form of miniature hatchets of red card-board, giving a patriotic appearance, and the salad course and lemon ice were much enjoyed. Those who partook of Mrs. Walton's hospitality were: Mesdames J. C. Hays, William Severance, W. C. Withers, W. S. Rice, R. T. Bruce, Shelton M. Sautley and J. B. Paxton.—Contributed.

VERY OLD LETTER

Our old friend, Tinsley Spoonamore, has a letter written by Samuel Ashlock to his father, Samuel Spoonamore, on Aug. 2, 1836. Mr. Ashlock was a citizen of Columbia, Mo., and wrote to his old friend here. The penmanship is exceptionally good. It was before the day of envelopes and the letter was made into the shape of an envelope and held together with gummed paper. It took 25 cents to bring it through the mails.

SOLD HIS CORN CROP

Mr. L. R. Hughes, of the real estate firm of Hughes & McCarty, returned last night from his farm near North Vernon, Ind., where he spent several days looking over it. While there he sold his large crop of corn at $1 per bushel. Mr. Hughes is a successful farmer, better theoretically than practically, however. He is doing nicely with his Hoosier holdings, his friends here and elsewhere will be glad to know.

TEN CENTS FOR CATLE

Road Engineer J. L. McKee Riffe sold this week to George Tucker, of the West End, 19 prime 1,400-pound cattle at the record price of 10 cents per pound. They were choice ones and will bring top prices on the city market. When Mr. Riffe bought them he jestingly remarked to a friend that he would sell them for a dime, and sure enough he did.
